

THE NEWS FROM VIRGINIA CONTINUED FROM PAGE SEVEN

LAWMAKERS OF THE STATE

Who Will Be Members of the Next General Assembly.

BUT FEW REPUBLICANS

One Hundred and Thirty-one Democrats on Joint Ballot Without Buntin, of Pittsylvania, Who May Have Been Defeated by His Independent Opponent—List of Hold-Over Senators.

In the next General Assembly of Virginia the Democrats will have one hundred and thirty-one on joint ballot, certainly, and they may have one hundred and thirty-two. If Buntin, House candidate in Pittsylvania, has been elected, the latter figure will express the joint Democratic vote. It is probable that Buntin was elected.

In the Senate there will be only one vote—that of William Shands, a Democrat, who was elected by the people as an Independent Democrat, in spite of the arbitrary interference of the committee, from the Thirty-second District. The other eighteen Senators elected Tuesday are regular Democrats. All of the twenty-one hold-overs are straight Democrats.

The House membership, of one hundred, will consist of ninety-two, possibly ninety-three, regular Democrats, three or four Independents, and four Republicans. The Independents are R. S. Powell, of Brunswick; Josiah Stickney, of Shenandoah, and W. H. Gravelly, of Henry. Republicans will be J. D. Honaker, of Smyth and Bland; S. E. Pitts, of Caroline; Ely, of Lee, and Cannady, of Floyd and Franklin. An Independent may have defeated Buntin in Pittsylvania.

The composition of the next Legislature is accurately stated in the following list:

CITY GAS CO.

Traveling salesmen must take their meals whenever and wherever they can get them. They bolt their food one minute and hustle to catch a train the next. Hasty meals and continual jolting in railroad trains bring on indigestion and dyspepsia. A druggist at Bridgeport, Conn., says he has long had quite a trade for Ripans Tabules among traveling men, and it is becoming a practice with them to carry a supply in the grip. One of these men takes two a day and declares they have helped him a good deal. After an evening session with jack pots, tobacco and whiskey, nothing clears the head in the morning so early or so thoroughly as a Ripans Tabule taken just before going to bed, no matter how late the retiring hour may happen to be.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores. For five cents. The low priced box is not-indicated for the poor and is economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (50 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CURE CO., COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—of a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.
